

Career Resources

Kentucky Manufacturing Career Center

<http://kcc.kentuckianaworks.org/JobSeekers/KMCC.aspx>

If you are interested in a manufacturing job, this career center will help train and certify you. It also offers work-focused ESL instruction.

Kentucky Youth Career Centers

<http://kcc.kentuckianaworks.org/Youth/KentuckyYouthCareerCenterLocations.aspx>

Young people between the ages of 16 and 21 can use the services provided at the Kentucky Youth Career Centers to help them plan for a fulfilling career and take the necessary steps to obtain it.

Greater Louisville, Inc. Intern to Earn program

<http://www.greaterlouisville.com/InternToEarn/>

If you are looking for an internship in Louisville to boost your resume and give you the opportunity to enhance your job skills, GLI's Intern to Earn program can help you. They have listings of internships in a variety of fields, and they plan networking and professional development activities.

Greater Louisville, Inc. Greater Louisville International Professionals

<http://www.greaterlouisville.com/glip/>

This organization connects professionals who come to Louisville from all over the world and strives to make Louisville a more welcoming place for them.

National Society of Hispanic MBAs

<https://www.nshmba.org/>

You do not have to have an MBA to be a part of this organization. They do specifically strive to develop Hispanic business professionals, but their vision is to increase educational and professional attainment for Hispanics across the board.

Navigate Enterprise Center

<http://navigatecenter.org/>

If you have ever dreamed of opening your own small business, the Navigate Enterprise Center can help you achieve your goal. They offer seminars, business consulting, microloans, and other services for free or very cheap.

Jewish Family and Career Services

<http://jfcslouisville.org/>

JFCS offers college and career advising, assistance for those seeking to advance their careers, financial literacy training, and more.

Corporation for National and Community Service

<http://www.nationalservice.gov/>

If you are looking to gain meaningful experience outside of a traditional career or higher education but would like to earn some money for college at the same time, the CNCS offers opportunities to do full-time, paid community service.

Job Corps

<http://www.jobcorps.gov/home.aspx>

Job Corps is a free program that allows teens to get a high school diploma or GED, learn specific skills for a career, and find a good job. The Whitney M. Young and Earle C. Clements Job Corps Center are closest to Louisville and provide the option for students to live on campus. Earle C. Clements offers ESL classes.