*NOTE***

The minimum requirements to graduate high school in Kentucky may be different than the requirements to gain acceptance into certain schools. For instance, high schools do not require credits towards a foreign language, but to gain acceptance into the University of Kentucky or the University of Louisville you need 2 credits or demonstrated competency.

Be sure to look over the requirements at the college(s) you are interested in attending to make sure you are taking everything necessary to meet those and setting yourself up for success.
